

Within the framework of the cooperation between INALCO and RUFA, teaching and training mobility grants are offered to the academic and administrative staff of the two institutions to go to the partner institution for a teaching assignment or training.

These mobilities will be funded and carried out under the European Erasmus+ program.

Eligibility conditions:

- Being employee of the home institution (INALCO or RUFA)
- No nationality requirement,
- Duration of the mobility between 5 days and 2 months,
- Not to benefit from other funding from the European Union to achieve this mobility,
- For teaching mobility, teaching a minimum 8h / week.

Types of mobility :

- Educational Mobility: Teachers of RUFA and INALCO can visit the partner institution to teach one or more courses.
- Training mobility: RUFA teaching or administrative staff can go to INALCO for a training / internship / observation period (including structured courses, language training). Conferences are ineligible.

Application:

You must send your file before the 15th of February 2019 for a mobility during the year 2018/2019, to the addresses below: manusastra.sedyl@inalco.fr (manusastra project) and:

- for RUFA teachers and staff to HE. Rector HENG Sophady,
- for INALCO teachers and staff to Dr. Joseph Thach.

Composition of the application file:

- Mission request form completed, with the agreement of the superior (attached file),
- Training or teaching program,
- Agreement of the host institution for teaching missions (email is sufficient).

Selection Criteria: The selection is made on the basis of a mission program and justification of the added value for the sending establishment. Particular attention will be paid to gender equality.

Erasmus allocation

The scholarship consists of a flat-rate part for transport costs and another for living expenses on the spot.

Travel costs: 1100 €

Costs of stay:

- To Cambodia: 160€/day (from the 1st to the 14th day) then 112€/day (from the 15th).
